Physicians had given me many different remedies which were like using so much water; they measured my eyes for glasses, which I got and wore for some time, but they did not benefit me in the least. My mother desired me to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce and explain the condition of my eyes. I did so, and after following your advice, and using eight bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and eight of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' can say my trouble is entirely cured. I would advise any one so afflicted to try these wonderful medicines. My health was never so good as it is now, and I shall never tire of praising Dr. Pierce's medicines."

BARRETT PREDICTS BRYAN'S ELECTION

Republican's Eloquent Presentation of His Reasons for Change of Faith.

WRITES INTERESTING LETTER.

Changed Attitude of Former Office holder Caused Consternation Among McKinley Followers in Illinois.

Mount Vernon, Ill., Nov. 3. The following letter was to-day received by Mr. William T. Sumner of this city from Amos B. Barrett, formerly of this county, but now of Lonoke, Ark., who predicts Mr. Bryan's Mr. Barrett lived in Jefferson County for forty years and is the only one yet living of the six original Republicans who composed the party here in 1856. Durnoted as the most uncompromising Republican in the county. For many years he acted as Deputy Postmaster, and in 1878 house of the Illinois Legislature. He has always been conceded to be an excellent knowledge of his defection from the Republican party has created the greatest consternation in the ranks of the McKinley-Hanna trust followers here, where Mr. Barrett lived so many years and is so well and favorably known.

The letter is as follows:
"Although I have retired from active poltics, yet the immense interests involved just now couse me to write. During the last forry years I have carpfully studied the estuation before each recurring election and have, strange to say, never missed guessing the result but one time, i.e., when Hayes and Tilden ran. (Am not sure that I missed it then.) I voted for Hayes but guessed for Tilden. Just prior to the Chimissed it then.) I voted for Hayes but guessed for Tilden. Just prior to the Chicago convention, four years are, I wrote to Governor Altgeid and carefully outlined what I believed should be embodied in the platform if success was to be even thought of, and even then I believed McKinley and the money power would win, and they did. To my great astonishment, when the platform appeared it contained, not in my language, of course, but in substance, every suggestion sent in. I was pleased, and of course voted for Bryan, yet without any hope of his election. Next Tuesday I expect to vote for him again, this time firmly believing he will be elected. Bryan has developed into a most wonderful man.

I don't take much stock in Providence in details; but surely if ever two men were raised up by Providence, to save this great nation, they were Lincoln and Bryan—one, the greatest, dead, the other the greatest living American—both the intellectual produces of each and the acknowledge his greatness, when Hanna and his dinner-pail politics are forgetten, Bryan will live, like Washington and Lincoln, embalmed in the hearts of his countrymen. Lincoln gave liberty to 4,000,000 of black slaves; I believe Bryan is destined to give liberty to several times 4,000,000 of white, industrial slaves, who, by their toil, are piling up mountains of wealth for a few to enloy. A Government their toil, are piling up mountains of wealth for a few to enjoy. A Government of force abroad is a clear violation of our Constitution, contrary to the spirit and ge-nius of our Government, un-American, anticonstitution, contrary to the spirit and genius of our Government, un-American, anti-American, and a slander of that greatest of all documents, the Declaration of Indepedence. How any man who loved and admired Lincoln while he lived, as I did, can now vote requarily against those high ideals which were so dear to him, by voting to continue the present administration in power. Is beyond my comprehension. Surely prejudice and party zeal, not intelligent, thoughtful weighing of issues involved, must determine their actions now.

"I will seen be dead; election results can affect me but little; but for the sake of those to come after, I hope the flag of liery will be kept aloft, the Declaration of Independence remain intact, and shine on as a beacon light to those striving for liberty in every land.

A. B. BARRETT."

DOUGHNUTS MADE

A WOMAN RICH.

Out in the Frozen Region of Nome Miners Enjoy Good Things "Like Mother Used to Make."

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 3.-Miss Jennie Long of this city has returned from a trip to Nome and is telling that women have a good chance in the bleak sand stretches of the frigid North to make money, if they only go about in a practical way.

Miss Long went to Nome for a vacation and to look the land over and see if she could not gather a little of the wealth that she had been told merely awaited the picking up there. Miss Long says that when she reached the end of her long journey she found the town so crowded that people were walking the streets at night because there were not enough places where they could sleep. Within a week after her arrival she bought a tent, and in a few days there was a sign hung at her door which informed the pass-ing miners that "home-made doughnuts" were for sale within. From an old cook book that had beleased to her mother Miss Long had taken a recipe for Southern doughnuts. This she followed to the letter, and the result was that she had five dozen of the nicest little brown cakes that ever gladdened the eye of a hungry man. Every one of the doughnuts brought the sum of 25 cents, and in an hour all had disap-peared. After this orders came faster than they could be filled.

According to the practical young lady traveler, "all a woman needs in Nome is to traveler, "all a woman needs in Nome is to have her wits about her, and she can make money. I was fortunate enough to get a position as copylst for the Pacific Title, Abstract and Trust Company, composed of the several millionaire business men of Seattle, and through this means I was able to obtain quarter interests in two very rich claims, one on the Nome River and the other on Newton Creek. The Nome River claim will be worked throughout the winter, and the Newton Creek claim will be worked when I return in the spring.

"After I had become identified with Nome I set to work to give a series of entertainments. The first I gave was in the Presbyterian Church tent, under the auspices of that denomination, and it was surprising the way the miners and the residents turned out."

"I afterwards gave a recital, assisted by some musicians, in a hall, and it was crowded to the doors. Vaudeville shows have never been successful in Nome, have never been successful in Nome, strange to say.

"During the terrible storms in September I was pretty badly frightened. The night the Skookum was wrecked I was at the Pacific Title Office building, and it seemed as if the big vessel was making straight for us. She was washed ashore not more than 100 feet from where I stood.

"An enterprise is on foot to start a company to get the vast tundra tracts in condition to be used as fuel. When dried it makes fuel equal to the best coal, it is claimed."

JURY OUT SIXTY HOURS.

Judge Wood Says Case Argues for Reform in the Law.

After being out for over sixty hours the jury in the case of Marion Brown, a negro, charged with grand larceny, reported to Judge Wood yesterday morning that it had failed to reach an agreement. Judge Wood discharged the jurors, taking advantage of the opportunity to express his favorable opinion on the proposed amendment in the jury law which provices that in civil cases a majority of nine jurors shall render a verdict in courts of record.

It was learned after court had adjourned that one man hung the jury. On the first ballot eleven voted for conviction and one for acquittal. Over fifty ballots were taken, all with the vote the same.

Brown was charged with stealing a ring frem Mrs. Elizabeth Rice of No. 2143 Clark avenue. Chris Schawacker balled him, and he fied from the city. A few weeks ago he

Hard work for a weak woman is traffic in flesh and haustion results from weakness.

It makes ttle difference what the field of work is, whether at home or elsewhere, if there is weakness, work brings exhaustion.

Overworked Women.

Fatigue is the natural result of hard work, but ex-

Ability to tand the strain of hard work is the privilege of the healthy and robust.

How our hearts ache for the sickly women that work for daily bread at some ill-paid factory employment ! How distressing also to see a woman struggling with her daily round of household duties, when her back and head are aching, and every new movement brings out a new pain! If the mere looking on at these suffering women touches our hearts, how hopeless must lif be to the women themselves ?

Their devotion to duty is a heroism which a well person cannot understand. Can these ailing, weak women, who are called upon to do work which would tire a strong man, be made to see that they can easily and surely better their condition?

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, convince them of the virtues of this medicine ?

How shall the FACT that it WILL HELP THEM be made plain?

When a medicine has been successful in more than a million cases, is it justice to yourself to say, without trying it, "I do not believe it would help me"?

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak and sick and discouraged, exhausted with each day's work. You have some derangement of the femirine organism, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as surely as it has others.

Read the letters from women in the opposite column of this paper, and when you go to your drug store to buy this sterling medicine, do not let urself be persuaded to accept the druggist's own valueless preparation because 16 is a few cents cheaper than Lydia E. Pinkhai 1's Vegetable Compound.

Evidence of Mrs. Pinkham's Cures.

DEAR MRS. PINEHAM: -One year ago I read a letter in a paper tellin had derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had been sick all winter and was nearly discouraged, as the medicine the doctor gave me did me no good. I had kidney complaint, leucorrhosa, itching, bearing-down feeling, and painful menstruation. I wrote to you describing my trouble and soon receive. an answer telling me what to do. I followed your instructions, and have taken nine bottles of Vegetable Compound and used one package of Sanntive Wash and one box of Liver Pills. I am well now, do not have those sick spells at the monthly period, but can work all day, and that I never could do until I began taking the Compound. I cannot praise the Compound too highly. I do hope every suffering woman will learn of your remedies and be cured as I have been. I wish all success to the Compound: it has done wonders for me and I am so thankful."-MRS. GENIE KELLOGG. Berlin Heights, Ohio.

"DEAR MRS. PINEHAM:-I wish to let you know at Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of painfu. menstruation from which I suffered terribly. I really believe that I would be insane to-day if it had not been for your medicine. I cannot praise your Compound :- ugh, and feel that if all who suffer from female troubles would put the elves under your care and follow your advice they will find relief.— SS K. E. SCHOLTES, Mt. Oliver, Pittsburg, Pa.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-For eight years I have suffered with inflammation of the womb and bladder, profuse and painful menstruation, and at times it seemed as though I should die. I doctored most of the time, but seemed to fail every year. A short time ago I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, thanks to your wonderful me ine, I am to-day a well woman. Your medicine is woman's best friend."—MRS. L. L. TOWNE, Littleton, N. H.

DEAR MES. PINEHAM:—I write this letter for you to publish for the benefit of poor, suffering women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vogetable Compound has done me a great deal of good. I have taken three bottles and feel like a new woman. When I began the use of your medicine I was hardly able to be up, could not o half a day's work. I ached from head to foot, was almost crazy, h. I those bearing-down pains, and stomach was out of order. Now all of these troubles have left me and I can work every day in the week and no feel tired."— MRS. JENNIE FREEMAN, 402 Pennsylvania Ave., Lim Ohio.

MOMDINAIL

"DEAR MRS. PINEHAM:-I was sick for seven years without any relief, although treated by two of the very best doctors in this city. A few years ago I was nothing but a living skeleton. The doctor said my heart vas the cause of all my sickness and that I could only be relieved, but never get well. Sometimes I would get so exhausted and short of breath that I would not know what to do. .Ir nerves were very weak, blood impure. Was troubled with hands and feet swelling; also had leucorrhom. I have taken six bottles of Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and feel well once more. I have gained twenty-seven pounds and am able to work all day in the store and do not feel tired when I get home at night. Words cannot express my gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham for what her medicine has done for me."-PETRA M. LOYA, care of L. Wolfson, San Antonio, Texas.
